WORLD'S NEWS DAILY

Society

The reception and ball for the officers of the visiting cruiser San Gabriel at Lusitania hall on Friday evening was a brilliant affair.

The Misses Macdonald entertained last Saturday evening with a card party in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hurd. After the games a delicious little supper was served.

Mrs. Richard Ivers entertained with an elaborately appointed luncheon on Thursday, at which the complimented guest was Mrs. Hyde Smith, the mother of Mrs. Harold Dillingham, who is visiting here. The luncheon was served from a large circular table decorated with pastillages and maidenhair fern, and after lunch several hours were passed at bridge.

The usual number of town-people ran down to Haleiwa for Sunday. Among those registered were M. M. Graham, Miss Buchanan, M. P. Prosser, J. O. Gilman and family, W. H. McInerney, A.
J. Campbell, G. A. Bower and party, A. H. Atong and family, W. A. Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Dillingham, Mrs. Hyde Smith and E. E. Bodge and party.

Professors Coddington and Lord, the scientists who came on the Sierra to take observations of Halley's comet, are stationed at Haleiwa. It is said this is the best place to observe the comet.

On Thursday Mrs. Jack Balch was the hostess at a luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Francis Gay of Kauai and Mrs.
Charles Elston of Berkeley, California.
The table was massed with bunches of purple violets, and a smaller bunch of the same flowers was at each plate.
The luncheon was followed by an impromptu musical program.

Mrs. W. O. Atwater, accompanied by her two youngest sons, Benner and Curtiss Atwater, is leaving on the Luline tomorrow evening for the Coast, to be gone for an indefinite period.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kerr will depart on the Luine tomorrow evening for an extended visit on the mainland.

Mrs. Harold Dillingham entertained with a luncheon on Thursday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Hyde Smith, at which covers were laid for Mrs. E. D.
Tenney, Mrs. Arthur Wilder, Mrs. S. M.
Ballou, Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Mrs. A.
M. Brown, Mrs. S. W. Dunning, Mrs.
Hyde Smith and Mrs. Dillingham.

The Men's league of the Central Union Church will hold its second annual "ladies' night" on the evening of the twenty-third of this month on the roof garden of the Young Hotel.
At six-thirty a dinner will be served in the Maika pavilion, and this will be followed by a song recital, given by Miss Eva Lindeman in the Maika pavilion.

The young ladies of the Macdonalds are planning to give another of their enjoyable and jolly dances on the evening of the twenty-third of this month.
Bridge whist is also down on the program for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell are at Haleiwa for a few days. They went down in their automobile and have been enjoying the many little side trips that can be made in a motor about Haleiwa.

Mrs. A. W. T. Bottomley and Mrs. R.
A. Jordan are at Haleiwa, Mr. Bottomley motoring down for the week ends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Benker, Miss Banker and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M.
Brown, all of San Francisco, made the round-the-island trip in Jim Quinn's car on Thursday. The party were delighted with their lunch at the pretty cass in the trip, Haleiwa, the House Beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan of Redlands are enjoying the quiet rest of Haleiwa.

On last Thursday evening a most enjoyable bridge party was given at the Honokaa plantation at the home of the acting manager. The playing was preceded by a musical program given by Herr Bucholtz and Mrs. Devereux.
Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barelay, Dr. and Mrs. C. Buffett, Mr. and Mrs. W. Devereux, Mr. and Mrs.
Jaouen, Miss Violet Furse, M. J. Fassuth and George Bucholtz.

Mrs. Hyde Smith, who is here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dillingham and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, is booked to depart Wednesday on the Wilhelmina for a trip to the volcano.

On Monday evening Consul Camargo was the host of a jolly sing dinner given in honor of Captain Philo Barto of the cruiser San Gabriel.

The friends of Dr. and Mrs. John S. Mathew are rejoicing with them over the news of the wedding of their son, Fern Mathew, which took place on the seventh day of this month in London to Isabelle Scott Grant, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott of New York city. Mr. and Mrs. M. S.
Mathew are spending their honeymoon in Europe and will return home in June, where they will reside.

Mrs. Bruce Macdonald was the hostess on Wednesday at a beautifully appointed luncheon given at her home on Kanihau street. The table decorations were dainty, arranged in pink, cream and blue, and ferns and roses were used. Those present were Mrs. L.
Tanner, Mrs. E. J. Macdonald, Mrs. S. M.
Ballou, Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Mrs. A.
M. Brown, Mrs. S. W. Dunning, Mrs.
Hyde Smith and Mrs. Dillingham.

out flowers all of which had arrived during the day accompanied by cards of well wishes from the popular host's scores of friends. A Hawaiian orchestra was played for the dancing and supper was served late in the evening.

Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop entertained with a luncheon on Friday in compliment to Mrs. Renjes. The guests were seated at two oblong tables beautifully decorated with cut flowers and after lunch the hours were devoted to bridge.

Mrs. C. Heidemann entertained at her Waikiki home on Friday in honor of Miss Rose McCallan, Miss Josephine McCallan and Miss Jessica Irwin.

Invitations are out for a dance to be given at Fort Shafter on next Thursday evening by the commanding officer, officers and ladies of the Fort.

Mrs. Noble and her daughter Miss Wagner, two charming visitors from Seattle, gave a pretty little dinner party for eight at the Moana on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schaefer entertained in compliment to Mrs. Renjes and Miss Elsa Renjes.

Mrs. Edith Spalding Garrett, arrived on the transport Sheridan to be present at the wedding of her sister, Miss Alice Spalding to Lieut. George Bowen of Fort Shafter.

The postponement of the international fete to be given by St. Andrew's Guild, because of the burial of the King of England, only means that the public will get a better and more valuable entertainment for the money than if the fete was given on the date first advertised.
An affair given on such a large scale necessarily entails a great amount of labor, and coming a week later means plans perfected that will make the whole entertainment more beautiful.
Several of the Punahou students have given their services to the busy chairman and that means that many clever dances will be put on.

The various committees are making great fun of all their work, and many social hours are spent in what might be a disagreeable task. The German people under the guiding hand of Mrs.
Walter Hoffmann are planning some splendid and attractive things—dances, volkslieder, and scenes which will be given on the huge lanai of the Princecess Kawaanakoa's residence.

The American Colonies with Mrs.
Arthur Wall at the head are constantly thinking of new and surprising features. For instance, a southern "mammy" will serve you to order and homemade gingerbread, and there will be a real old-fashioned Virginia reel to the music of fiddles, that the whole public may join in if they choose.

Mrs. C. M. V. Forster of the British Isles committee tells of the harmonious work of the committee. The Scotch people are dusting off their kilts ready to show us how the genuine Highland Flieg is done.

Mrs. Eben Low with her Spanish troubadours promises much that is interesting. Hawaii is enlarging her plans generally and this part of the entertainment will prove most fascinating. China and Japan are sure to please with their customs, and decoration.

Russia, under the care of Mrs. Walter Emory, will blossom into loveliness.
Girls in embroidered Russian garb will serve you with savory sandwiches and tea, and there will be an array of genuine Russian brasses, beautifully worked linens and small articles for sale.

The posters were done by the Punahou students and the Priory girls. Mayor Fern has generously loaned the band which will open the fete with a grand march of all of the participants in costume.
Pretty German flower girls, Poles, Russians, American beauties in colonial costumes, Spanish donnas, Mexican ladies in blue mantillas, English dairymaids and Scotch dancers will all be in line, together with many other nationalities.
